ABOUT SPENCER STUART BOARD SERVICES

At Spencer Stuart, we know how much leadership matters. We are trusted by organizations around the world to help them make the senior-level leadership decisions that have a lasting impact on their enterprises. Through our executive search, board and leadership advisory services, we help build and enhance high-performing teams for select clients ranging from major multinationals to emerging companies to nonprofit institutions.

Privately held since 1956, we focus on delivering knowledge, insight and results through the collaborative efforts of a team of experts - now spanning more than 60 offices, over 30 countries and more than 50 practice specialties. Boards and leaders consistently turn to Spencer Stuart to help address their evolving leadership needs in areas such as senior-level executive search, board recruitment, board effectiveness, succession planning, in-depth senior management assessment, employee engagement and many other facets of organizational effectiveness.

For more than 30 years, our Board Practice has helped boards around the world identify and recruit independent directors and provided advice to board chairs, CEOs and nominating committees on important governance issues. We serve a range of organizations across geographies and scale, from leading multinationals to smaller organizations. In the past year alone, we conducted more than 750 director searches worldwide, and in North America one-third of those assignments were for companies with revenues under $1 billion.

Our global team of board experts works together to ensure that our clients have unrivaled access to the best existing and potential director talent, and regularly assists boards in increasing the diversity of their composition. We have helped place women in more than 2,100 board director roles and recruited more than 750 minority executives around the world.

In addition to our work with clients, Spencer Stuart has long played an active role in corporate governance by exploring - both on our own and with other prestigious institutions - key concerns of boards and innovative solutions to the challenges facing them. Publishing the U.S. Spencer Stuart Board Index (SSBI), now in its $34^{\text {th }}$ edition, is just one of our many ongoing efforts. Each year, we sponsor and participate in several acclaimed director education programs, including:
» Next-Gen Board Leaders (NGBL), an initiative designed to foster a community of current and aspiring directors to spark discussion around the challenges, opportunities and contributions of a younger generation in today's boardrooms
» The Global Institutes, sponsored by the WomenCorporateDirectors (WCD) Foundation
» The Corporate Governance Conference at Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management
» The New Directors Program, a unique two-year development program designed to provide first-time, non-executive directors with an exclusive forum for peer dialogue on key issues and "unwritten rules" of corporate boards, produced in partnership with the Boston Consulting Group, Frederick W. Cook & Co., Davis Polk, Lazard and PricewaterhouseCoopers

Spencer Stuart Perspective for 2019

S&P 500 boards continue their evolution. The 2019 U.S. Spencer Stuart Board Index finds that boards are heeding the growing calls from shareholders and other stakeholders for enhanced boardroom diversity of gender, age, race/ethnicity and professional backgrounds.

The profile of directors joining S&P 500 boards continues to shift. The 2019 incoming class of 432 independent directors, the most since 2004, shows that change is happening on many fronts, driven by the addition of women and minority men directors. However, because boardroom turnover remains low, with the new directors representing only $8 \%$ of all S&P 500 directors, changes to overall numbers continues at a slow pace.

BOARDS ARE ACCELERATING THE ADDITION OF WOMEN

 AND MINORITY DIRECTORSOf the 432 independent directors added to S&P 500 boards over the past year, a record-breaking $59 \%$ are diverse (defined as women and minority men), up from half last year.

Gender diversity is a clear boardroom priority, with women comprising $46 \%$ of the incoming class, compared to $40 \%$ last year. Of the 277 S&P 500 companies appointing new independent directors over the past year, about half increased the number of women directors (on a net basis after independent director departures):
» 50 companies - $18 \%$ - increased the number of women directors while maintaining or reducing the number of independent directors.

More than $90 \%$ of S&P 500 boards now have two or more women directors, up from $86 \%$ last year and $53 \%$ a decade ago.

Boards are also focused on racial/ethnic diversity. Just under one in four new S&P 500 directors (23\%) are minorities (defined as African-American/Black, Asian or Hispanic/Latino). Minority women represent $10 \%$ of the incoming class, up slightly from $9 \%$ last year. Minority men represent $13 \%$ of the new directors, an increase from $10 \%$ last year but still down from $14 \%$ two years ago.

While women and minority men constitute more than half of the new directors, continued low boardroom turnover remains a persistent impediment to meaningful year-over-year change in the overall composition of S&P 500 boards. As a result, in spite of the record number of female directors, representation of women increased incrementally to $26 \%$ of all directors, up from $24 \%$ in 2018 and $16 \%$ in 2009.

Slight progress is being made in minority representation at the top 200 S&P 500 companies. Today, $19 \%$ of all directors of the top 200 companies are male or female minorities, up from $17 \%$ last year and $15 \%$ in 2009 .

THE PROFILE OF NEW S&P 500 DIRECTORS IS CHANGING

For years investors have been urging boards to look beyond CEOs and experienced directors to find boardroom talent. Boards are listening. In addition to gender and race/ethnic diversity, the 2019 U.S. Spencer Stuart Board Index finds continued changes in the profile of directors joining S&P 500 boards.
» CEO experience isn't mandatory: $65 \%$ of the 2019 incoming class come from outside the top executive ranks of CEO, chair/vice chair, president and COO.
» Other corporate leadership skills are valued: $23 \%$ have experience as division/subsidiary heads or as EVPs, SVPs or functional unit leaders.
» Board experience isn't a requirement: $27 \%$ are serving on their first public company board.
» Financial talent remains a priority: $27 \%$ have financial backgrounds, with boards less interested in accounting and banking backgrounds and more focused on candidates with experience as CFOs/finance executives or investment professionals.
" Age diversity is a lower priority: $16 \%$ are 50 or younger.

DIVERSE DIRECTORS ARE THE DRIVING FORCE BEHIND THE CHANGING PROFILE OF NEW S&P 500 DIRECTORS

The data shows marked differences between the profiles of women and diverse men joining S&P 500 boards over the past year and those of non-diverse men.

Diverse directors:
» Are far less likely to be CEOs or experienced directors: Only 19\% of the diverse directors are current or former CEOs, compared to $44 \%$ of non-diverse men. Meanwhile $34 \%$ of the diverse directors are first-time corporate directors, nearly double the $18 \%$ of the nondiverse directors.
» Bring other types of corporate leadership experience to the boardroom: $31 \%$ of the women and minority men are current or former line or functional leaders, compared to just $11 \%$ of the nondiverse men.
» Tend to be younger: $18 \%$ of diverse directors are "next-gen" (defined as 50 or younger), compared to $12 \%$ of non-diverse men.
" Are less likely to have investment backgrounds: $25 \%$ of the diverse directors have backgrounds as CFOs, investors, accountants and bankers, compared to $31 \%$ of non-diverse men; the differentiator in the financial category is investment management/investor experience, with $14 \%$ of non-diverse directors having this background, compared to $7 \%$ of the diverse directors.
" Come with a wider array of professional experiences: $18 \%$ of the diverse director experiences fall into the categories of academics/ not-for-profit executives, consultants, government/military or other, compared to just $7 \%$ of the non-diverse men.

Industry perspective also varies between diverse and non-diverse directors. A significant majority ( $61 \%$ ) of the non-diverse men come from four industry sectors: consumer discretionary, information technology, financials and healthcare. In contrast, a bare majority ( $51 \%$ ) of the diverse directors come from these same four industry sectors. The difference is covered by the increased representation of diverse directors from the industrials, utilities, consumer staples and real estate sectors.

BOARDS CONTINUE TO ADD YOUNGER DIRECTORS, BUT THE AVERAGE AGE OF S&P 500 DIRECTORS IS UNCHANGED

Tech, digital and consumer-savvy directors are in high demand, and boards continue to appoint younger, next-gen directors with these backgrounds. Once again, one out of six directors added to S&P 500 boards are 50 or younger. Over half (59\%) bring experiences from the private equity/investment management, consumer and information technology sectors. The rest are evenly distributed throughout the other nine primary industry sectors.

These younger directors are more diverse than the rest of the incoming class, with $69 \%$ either women ( $57 \%$ ) or minority men ( $12 \%$ ). They are also more likely to be serving on their first corporate board; $54 \%$ are first-time directors.

In terms of professional backgrounds, $85 \%$ of the next-gen directors fall into three categories: financial executives (34\%), division/ subsidiary/function leaders (26\%) or CEOs or top executives (25\%). A significantly higher percentage of next-gen directors than all new directors are investment/investor pros: one of five ( $21 \%$ ) boast investment/investor backgrounds, with half (all non-diverse men) currently working for an activist hedge fund.

New independent directors who are active or retired CEOs

Although S&P 500 boards are adding younger directors, an overwhelming number are older. More than $40 \%$ of the incoming class are 60 or older; the average age of a new S&P 500 independent director is 57.5 years. Of the universe of S&P 500 independent directors, $21 \%$ are older than 70 , while only $6 \%$ are 50 or younger. The average age of an S&P 500 independent director is 62.7 , a year older than in 2009.

LOW TURNOVER IN THE BOARDROOM PERSISTS

Consistent with recent years, $56 \%$ of S&P 500 boards added at least one new independent director over the past year, with $22 \%$ appointing two or more directors. The additions translate into an overall turnover of 0.88 new directors per board, up only slightly from 0.82 in 2018.

Over the past year, 392 independent directors left S&P 500 boards, departing at an average age of 68.7 and average tenure of 12.3 years. The lion's share - $60 \%$ - retired at 70 or older, and $34 \%$ served on the board for 15 or more years. Eighteen (5\%) were 80 or older with an average tenure of 19 years, and 24 (6\%) were 55 or younger with an average tenure of 5.8 years.

While the majority of boards added at least one independent director over the past year, $29 \%$ made no changes to their roster of independent directors - neither adding nor losing independent directors - and $15 \%$ reduced the number of independent directors without adding any new independent directors.

Absent changes in refreshment practices, low boardroom turnover rates are likely to continue.
» Mandatory retirement policies proliferate. Today $71 \%$ of S&P 500 boards disclose a mandatory retirement age for directors, consistent with last year and largely unchanged over the past five years. Retirement ages continue to rise. Of the universe of S&P 500 companies with retirement age policies, $46 \%$ set the age at 75 or older, up slightly from $44 \%$ last year and just $15 \%$ in 2009. Four boards have a retirement age of 80 . More than half mandate retirement at 74 or higher.
» Retirement policies are impacting turnover. More than threequarters of the independent directors who left S&P 500 boards in the past year served on boards with mandatory retirement ages. The age limits influenced the majority of these departures, with $41 \%$ either exceeding or reaching the age cap and another $14 \%$ leaving within three years of the retirement age.
» A small percentage of sitting independent directors are approaching retirement age. Only $15 \%$ of the independent directors on boards with age caps are within three years of mandatory retirement. With these directors averaging 63 years of age, most S&P 500 directors have years of potential service before reaching mandatory retirement.
» Directors on boards without age caps are older and longer tenured. Directors of companies without mandatory retirement policies average 64 years, and $26 \%$ are 70 or older, compared to $18 \%$ of directors on boards with retirement policies. Directors on boards without age caps average nine years of service, compared to eight years for directors facing age caps.
» Terms limits continue to be rare. Only 27 S&P 500 boards (5\%) set explicit term limits for non-executive directors, with terms ranging from 10 to 20 years. Just under three-quarters of the policies are set at 15 years or more. Meanwhile, the average tenure of S&P 500 independent directors is 8.0 years, a slight decrease from 8.4 years in 2014.

INVESTOR ATTENTION TO DIRECTOR "OVERBOARDING" IS INCREASING

Director board service emerged as a hot issue in 2019, with Vanguard announcing it would vote against any public company "named executive officer" serving on more than one outside board and any other directors serving on more than four public company boards. BlackRock's guidelines are similar but don't mandate an "against" vote.

On average, independent directors of S&P 500 companies serve on 2.1 boards, unchanged over the past five years. An increasing number of S&P 500 CEOs serve on no outside boards. This year's survey found $59 \%$ of S&P 500 CEOs serve on no outside boards, up from $55 \%$ last year and $51 \% 10$ years ago. More than one-third (37\%) of S&P 500 CEOs serve on one outside board. Only 23 S&P 500 CEOs (5\%) serve on two or more outside boards, and 79 independent directors ( $2 \%$ ) serve on more than four public company boards.

Most formal policies regarding board service are inconsistent with the Vanguard and BlackRock guidelines. More than $60 \%$ of the 113 companies with limits on their CEO's outside board service set the limit at two or more outside boards. More than half ( $52 \%$ ) of the 317 boards with limits for all independent directors set a limit of four total board seats, $5 \%$ set the limit at more than four boards. Only 140 boards set stricter limits for directors who are fully employed.

BOARD ASSESSMENTS COMMON, INDIVIDUAL ASSESSMENTS BECOMING MORE PREVALENT

New directors who have finance backgrounds

Boards report having mandatory retirement age

Annual assessments have become the norm for boards around the globe, and once again $98 \%$ of the surveyed S&P 500 companies reported conducting a board assessment over the past year. Individual director evaluations are gaining traction, with $44 \%$ of S&P 500 companies - up from $38 \%$ last year and $22 \% 10$ years ago reporting some form of individual director evaluations.

INDEPENDENT BOARD CHAIRS CONTINUE TO

 GROW IN NUMBER AND COMPENSATIONToday more than half of S&P 500 boards ( $53 \%$ ) split the chair and CEO roles, up from $37 \%$ a decade ago. One-third ( $34 \%$ ) are chaired by an independent director - a director who meets the applicable NYSE or NASDAQ rules for independence - an increase from $31 \%$ last year and $16 \%$ in 2009.

As the number of independent chairs has increased, the number of lead and presiding directors has declined. Today $75 \%$ of S&P 500 boards report having an independent lead or presiding director, compared with $80 \%$ last year and $95 \%$ a decade ago.

Although the roles and responsibilities of an independent chair of the board and a lead director are frequently similar, the difference in their compensation is wide and growing.
» Independent chairs receive, on average, an additional $172,000 in annual compensation, with the premium ranging from $30,000 to $$ 657,000$.
» Lead directors are paid an average supplement of around $41,000, with a range of $$ 10,000$ to $$ 200,000$.
» The average premium for presiding directors is $$ 31,000$, ranging from $10,000 to $75,000.
» The difference between the average pay of independent chairs and lead directors is $$ 131,000$, up from $$ 125,000$ last year.

FOR THE FIRST TIME, TOTAL DIRECTOR PAY AT S&P 500 BOARDS AVERAGES MORE THAN $300,000

The average total compensation for S&P 500 non-employee directors, including independent chairs, is around $305,000, a $2 \%$ year-over-year increase. The breakdown of director pay is unchanged, with $57 \%$ paid in stock awards, $38 \%$ in cash, $3 \%$ in stock options and $2 \%$ in "other" pay such as insurance premiums and charitable award programs.

Meeting attendance fees continue their decline. Today only 9\% of S&P 500 companies pay non-employee directors for attending board meetings, down from $10 \%$ last year and $43 \%$ a decade ago. Twelve percent ( $12 \%$ ) pay fees for attending committee meetings, compared to $27 \%$ five years ago and $45 \%$ in 2009 .

Director pay varies widely by sector, with a $$ 100,000$ difference between the average total director pay (excluding independent chair pay) of the highest and lowest paying sectors. Four sectors drive the overall average north of $$ 300,000$. Once again, the four highest-paying sectors are the only sectors averaging more than $300,000 in total pay: healthcare ( $$ 362,450$ ), information technology ( $$ 331,840$ ), telecommunications services ( $$ 331,076$ ) and energy $($ 325,234)$. The four average $$ 338,000$ in total director compensation, but year-overyear their compensation was largely flat, ranging from a decline of $1.7 \%$ to an increase of 0.1\%.

The annual change in director total pay in four of the seven other sectors far outpaced inflation. Average total compensation increased $4 \%$ or more in the following sectors: financials ( $5.7 \%$ ); real estate ( $4.9 \%$ ); materials ( $4.0 \%$ ); and utilities ( $4.0 \%$ ).

» Boards also increased their recruiting of minority directors. Just under one-quarter of new S&P 500 directors (23\%) are minorities (defined as African-American/Black, Asian or Hispanic/Latino), including 42 minority women ( $10 \%$ ).
" Minority men represent $13 \%$ of the new directors, an increase from $10 \%$ last year but still down from $14 \%$ two years ago.
» The profiles of women and minority directors differ from non-minority men. They are more likely to be younger and first-time directors, and less likely to be current or former CEOs or have investment experience.
$-34 \%$ of the diverse directors (women and minority men) are first-time corporate directors, versus $18 \%$ of the non-diverse male directors.
- $31 \%$ are current or former line or functional leaders, compared to just $11 \%$ of non-diverse male directors.
- $18 \%$ are next-gen (defined as 50 or younger), compared to $12 \%$ of non-diverse men.
- $19 \%$ are current or former CEOs, compared to $44 \%$ of non-diverse male directors.
$-7 \%$ have investment management/investor experience, versus $14 \%$ of non-diverse male directors.
- 18\% have experience in academics/not-for-profit, consultancies, government/military or other, compared to just $7 \%$ of the non-diverse men.

16\% OF NEW DIRECTORS ARE 50 AND YOUNGER

" $16 \%$ of the incoming class of S&P 500 directors are "next-generation" directors, age 50 or younger, a slight decline from $17 \%$ last year. $6 \%$ of all directors are next-gen directors. Over half of these next-gen directors are serving on their first public company board, and $57 \%$ are women.
» The majority (59\%) have backgrounds in three industries: private equity/investments (23\%), tech/telecommunications (22\%); and consumer goods (14\%).

INCREASE IN DIRECTORS WITH GLOBAL EXPERIENCE

» Fewer than one-third of new directors (31\%) have global professional experience, defined as having worked at an international location.
» $13 \%$ of new independent directors were born outside the U.S., an increase from $11 \%$ in 2018.

FEWER ACTIVE AND RETIRED CEOS AND OTHER TOP EXECUTIVES JOINING BOARDS

» More than a third (35\%) of new directors are active or retired CEOs, chairs, vice chairs, presidents and COOs, unchanged from last year. A decade ago, $43 \%$ of new directors were active or retired executives in these roles. The change is largely due to the decline in the number of active leaders in these roles ( $18 \%$ versus $26 \%$ in 2009).
" The other main profiles of new directors are finance executives and other corporate leaders. 27\% of new directors have financial backgrounds, including banking, finance, investment or accounting credentials, versus $18 \%$ a decade ago. $23 \%$ of new directors are active or retired corporate executives (such as division/subsidiary presidents and line and functional leaders), compared with $21 \%$ in 2009.

BOARDS AVERAGE 10.7 DIRECTORS

» S&P 500 boards have 10.7 directors on average. Boards range in size from five to 18 members. Over time, more boards have coalesced in the 9-to-12 member range; $72 \%$ of boards have nine to 12 directors, compared with $67 \%$ a decade ago.

Board Size

» $85 \%$ of all S&P 500 board directors are independent, consistent with the past several years. Boards average 9.1 independent directors and 1.6 affiliated directors.
" $82 \%$ of directors were independent in 2009.
» The CEO is the only non-independent director on $62 \%$ of S&P 500 boards, an increase from $59 \%$ last year and 50\% 10 years ago.

DECLASSIFIED BOARD STRUCTURES HAVE BECOME STANDARD

» Despite a slight decline since last year in the number of S&P 500 companies with a classified board structure, where directors stand for election by shareholders annually, most boards have moved to this structure over the past 10 years. $90 \%$ of boards have one-year terms, compared with $92 \%$ last year and $68 \%$ in 2009. The remaining boards have three-year terms.

Director Term Lengths

》 Many boards also have established policies requiring directors to offer their resignation if they fail to receive a majority vote from shareholders; $89 \%$ of boards have such policies today, up from $65 \%$ in 2009. Boards retain the discretion to accept or decline a director's resignation.

SMALL DECLINE IN AVERAGE BOARD TENURE

» The average tenure of independent directors on S&P 500 boards is 8.0 years, a modest decline from 8.4 in 2009. The median tenure has changed little in the same period, going from 8.2 a decade ago to 8.0.
» On the majority of S&P 500 boards ( $61 \%$ ), the average tenure of independent directors is between six and 10 years. The longest average board tenure is 35 years. Longer average board tenures - of ו1 or more years - were somewhat more common a decade ago, when $19 \%$ of boards had an average tenure of more than 10 years, versus $15 \%$ today.

Average Board Tenure for Independent Directors

» We also looked at the tenure of individual directors. The longest-serving director has been on his board for 50 years, although such lengthy tenures are relatively rare; $13 \%$ of independent directors have served on their boards for 16 years or more. $46 \%$ have served on their boards for five years or less, $24 \%$ have served for 6 to 10 years, and $17 \%$ for 11 to 15 years.

MOST BOARDS HAVE RESIGNATION POLICIES FOR CHANGING DIRECTOR STATUS

» Consistent with the past five years, $87 \%$ of S&P 500 boards require directors who experience a change in employment status or job responsibilities to offer their resignation to the chair and/or the nominating committee, which typically has the discretion to accept or decline the resignation.
» Less common are policies requiring the CEO to submit his or her resignation from the board when the CEO's employment with the company ends; $36 \%$ of boards report having such a policy. In all cases, however, boards retain the discretion to accept or decline the resignation.

THREE-QUARTERS OF BOARDS LIMIT DIRECTORS' ADDITIONAL BOARD ACTIVITY

》 $77 \%$ of S&P 500 boards report having some limit on directors' acceptance of other corporate directorships, an increase from $67 \%$ in 2009 . Limits take different forms, with some applying to all directors and others applying to audit committee members or directors who are public company CEOs.

- 64\% of boards report having a numerical limit for other board service that applies to all directors. Most of these boards limit members to three or four additional directorships.
$-42 \%$ restrict the number of other audit committees on which their audit committee members may serve, and nearly all limit audit committee members to no more than two other audit committees.
$-29 \%$ restrict the additional board activity of directors who are public company CEOs or are otherwise fully employed.
» Nearly all (98\%) of the 114 boards that do not report specific limits on joining other boards require directors to notify the board chair prior to accepting an invitation to join another company board and/or encourage directors to "reasonably limit" their other board service.

》 $23 \%$ of S&P 500 boards report in their corporate governance guidelines a specific limit on the CEO's outside board service. Among those that do, nearly all limit CEOs to one or two outside boards. Three boards allow their CEOs to serve on three outside corporate boards.

Boards with Limits on Additional Corporate Directorships

| Numerical limit | All directors | Audit committee members | Fully employed directors | CEOs |
| :--- | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| 1 | $0 \%$ | $0 \%$ | $7 \%$ | $9 \%$ |
| 2 | $3 \%$ | $41 \%$ | $21 \%$ | $13 \%$ |
| 3 | $25 \%$ | $1 \%$ | $2 \%$ | $1 \%$ |

| 5 | $3 \%$ | $0 \%$ | $0 \%$ | $0 \%$ |
| 6 | $1 \%$ | $0 \%$ | $0 \%$ | $0 \%$ |
| No reported limit | $36 \%$ | $58 \%$ | $71 \%$ | $77 \%$ |

INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS SERVE ON TWO BOARDS ON AVERAGE

» The majority (64\%) of S&P 500 independent directors serve on more than one public company board. $33 \%$ have two board affiliations, $20 \%$ have three and $11 \%$ have four or more. Eight directors (less than 1\%) serve on six boards.
» On average, independent directors have 2.1 public corporate board affiliations, which has been consistent for more than five years.

Number of Corporate Board Affiliations for Independent Directors

DIRECTOR TERM LIMITS REMAIN RARE

» Only 27 S&P 500 boards (5\%) report having explicit term limits for non-executive directors, with terms ranging from 10 to 20 years. Just under three-quarters ( $74 \%$ ) of the policies set limits at 15 years or more.
» $65 \%$ of boards explicitly state in their corporate governance guidelines that they do not have term limits. $30 \%$ do not mention term limits.
» Hybrid tenure policies are emerging. For example, Microsoft adopted a policy that targets an average tenure of 10 years or less for the board's independent directors.

Boards with Term Limits

75 IS NOW THE MOST COMMON MANDATORY RETIREMENT AGE

» $71 \%$ of S&P 500 boards disclose a mandatory retirement age for directors, consistent with last year and largely unchanged over the past five years. $12 \%$ report that they do not have a mandatory retirement age, and $17 \%$ do not discuss mandatory retirement in their corporate governance guidelines.
" Retirement ages continue to rise. For the first time, 75 is the most common mandatory retirement age, set by $42 \%$ of S&P 500 boards with a retirement age. $46 \%$ of boards with retirement age policies set the age at 75 or older, including four boards with a retirement age of 80 . A decade ago, only $15 \%$ of boards with a retirement age set it at 75 or older.
» Retirement policies are influencing turnover. More than three-quarters of the independent directors who left S&P 500 boards in the past year served on boards with mandatory retirement ages. $41 \%$ of the departing directors either reached or exceeded the age cap, and another $14 \%$ left within three years of the retirement age.
" Looking ahead, only $15 \%$ of the independent directors on boards with age caps are within three years of mandatory retirement. With these directors averaging 63 years of age, most S&P 500 directors have years of potential service before reaching mandatory retirement.
» Directors on boards without a mandatory retirement policy are older and longer tenured. They are 64 years old on average, and $26 \%$ are 70 or older, compared to $18 \%$ of directors on boards with retirement policies. Directors on boards without retirement policies average nine years of service, versus eight years for directors facing age caps.

Mandatory Retirement Age

THE AVERAGE AGE OF INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS IS JUST UNDER 63 YEARS OLD

» The average age of independent directors of $\mathrm{S} \& \mathrm{P} 500$ companies is 62.7 , a year older than the average a decade ago (61.7).
» Nearly half of directors (49\%) are between 60 and 70 years old, and $21 \%$ are older than 70 . Independent directors range in age from 30 to 94 years old.
» $4 \%$ are less than 50 years old, including 22 who are younger than 40 .
» Most boards ( $79 \%$ ) have an average board age in the 60s: $44 \%$ of boards have an average age of 60 to 63 , and $35 \%$ have an average age of 64 to $69.18 \%$ have an average age of 59 or younger, and $2 \%$ have an average age of 70 or older.

Average Age of Independent Directors

|  | 2019 | 2014 | 2009 |
| :--- | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| Average age of all independent directors | 62.7 | 63.1 | 61.7 |
| Youngest average board age | 46.8 | 45 | 52 |
| Oldest average board age | 82.8 | 73 | 75 |

| 60 to 63 | $44 \%$ | $44 \%$ | $49 \%$ |
| 64 and older | $37 \%$ | $45 \%$ | $29 \%$ |

MORE THAN ONE-QUARTER OF DIRECTORS ARE WOMEN, A NEW MILESTONE

» $26 \%$ of S&P 500 directors are women, an increase from $24 \%$ last year and $16 \%$ in 2009. This is the highest percentage of women directors we have seen since we began tracking this data in 1998.
» $92 \%$ of boards include two or more women directors, an increase from $86 \%$ last year and $53 \%$ in 2009. One-third of boards have three female directors and $23 \%$ have four or more.
» $8 \%$ of boards include only one woman, a decline from $13 \%$ last year and $36 \%$ in 2009.
" On average, boards today have 2.8 female directors, compared with 1.7 a decade ago.
» As of the date of their most recent proxy, two boards had no female directors, one in the industrials sector and one in the communications sector. Both boards have added a female director since the cut-off date of our analysis.
» Women's progress in board leadership roles is mixed. Women now chair $24 \%$ of board committees, including $24 \%$ of audit committees (versus $20 \%$ last year), $24 \%$ of compensation committees (versus $19 \%$ last year), and $25 \%$ of nominating/governance committees ( $24 \%$ ). However, only $5 \%$ of independent board chairs are women, a decline from $7 \%$ last year, as are $10 \%$ of lead/presiding directors, the same as last year.

Number of Women on Boards

"Two boards have no women and two have seven.
» As of our May 15, 2019, cut-off date, 25 S&P 500 companies have a woman serving as CEO. This represents a decline from last year, when there were 27 female CEOs, and from 2017, when there were 31 women leading S&P 500 companies.
» Companies led by women tend to have more female board directors than those led by men; on average, $37 \%$ of directors on boards of companies with a female CEO are women, versus $26 \%$ for companies with a male CEO. Excluding the female CEO from the average, $31 \%$ of the remaining directors are women.

MINORITY REPRESENTATION INCREASES AMONG THE TOP 200 COMPANY BOARDS

" $93 \%$ of the top 200 S&P 500 companies (by annual revenue) have minority directors, defined as African-American/Black, Hispanic/Latino or Asian directors, on their boards, an increase from $85 \%$ a decade ago. $70 \%$ of these companies have two or more minority directors, compared with $65 \%$ last year.
> $19 \%$ of directors in the top 200 S&P 500 companies are minority executives, up from $17 \%$ last year and 15\% in 2009.

》 18 (9\%) of the top 200 S&P companies are led by African-American/Black, Hispanic/Latino or Asian CEOs, two more than last year. Boards with minority CEOs have a higher average of minority directors (26\%), but the average falls to $19 \%$ when the minority CEO is excluded.

Minorities as \% of Directors at Top 200 Boards

Top 200 Boards with at Least One Minority Director

*Beginning in 2017, Asian category includes individuals of Indian descent, consistent with U.S. Census Bureau methodology.

12\% OF TOP 200 COMPANY DIRECTORS ARE NON-NATIONALS

» The number of non-U.S. directors on the boards of the top 200 S&P 500 companies increased to $12 \%$ from 8\% last year. Starting in 2019, the non-U.S. director category includes directors who were born outside the U.S. and also are classified as minority directors (African-American/Black, Asian or Hispanic/Latino).
» The top sources for non-U.S. directors are India (17\%), U.K. (17\%), Canada (9\%), France (5\%) and Germany (5\%).

MOST CEOS LIMIT THEIR OUTSIDE PUBLIC COMPANY COMMITMENTS

» The majority (59\%) of S&P 500 CEOs do not serve on any public corporate boards in addition to their own board, an increase from $51 \% 10$ years ago.
» CEOs who do accept other corporate directorships seem to do so sparingly. $37 \%$ of CEOs serve on one outside public company board, and just $4 \%$ serve on two. One CEO serves on three outside public boards. A decade ago, $16 \%$ of CEOs served on two or more other public company boards.

ONE-THIRD OF BOARDS HAVE AN INDEPENDENT CHAIR

» Just over one-third (34\%) of S&P 500 boards have a truly independent chair - a director who meets applicable NYSE or NASDAQ rules for independence - an increase from $31 \%$ last year. A decade ago, $16 \%$ of boards had an independent chair.
" $53 \%$ of boards split the chair and CEO roles between two individuals, compared with $50 \%$ last year. The trend toward separating the roles has been growing steadily for more than a decade; $37 \%$ of boards divided the roles in 2009.
» $12 \%$ of board chairs hold the title "executive chair," $5 \%$ are the former company CEO, and $3 \%$ are outside related directors, such as major investors, retired company executives, directors with business relationships with the company and others who receive significant compensation from the company.
» Among the 94 boards where the chair is separate but not independent, nearly all ( $97 \%$ ) have identified a lead or presiding independent director.
» Six boards do not report having any form of independent board leadership, neither an independent chair nor a lead/presiding director.

Chair's Relationship with the Company

RETIRED SENIOR EXECUTIVES, INVESTORS AND FINANCE LEADERS ARE TOP BACKGROUNDS FOR INDEPENDENT CHAIRS

» Just over half ( $54 \%$ ) of the 167 independent chairs of S&P 500 companies are retired CEOs, chairs, vice chairs, presidents or COOs.
» Investors and investment managers are the next most common profile, representing $14 \%$ of independent chairs, followed by financial executives ( $7 \%$ ). A decade ago, $19 \%$ of the independent chairs were investors/investment managers, but none were finance executives.
" Eight independent chairs, or $5 \%$, are active top executives, including five public company CEOs and three private company CEOs. A decade ago, 8 ו boards had independent chairs, six of whom ( $9 \%$ ) were active top executives.

WITH THE RISE OF INDEPENDENT CHAIRS, FEWER BOARDS HAVE LEAD/PRESIDING DIRECTORS

》 As more boards name independent chairs, fewer are appointing a lead or presiding director. 75\% of S&P 500 boards report having an independent lead or presiding director, a decline from $80 \%$ last year.
" Lead directors are more prevalent than presiding directors. $81 \%$ of the 371 boards with one of these roles have lead directors and $19 \%$ have presiding directors, including those identified as "chair" of executive sessions. A decade ago, $95 \%$ of boards had one of the roles; $54 \%$ were presiding directors and $46 \%$ were lead directors.

Lead versus Presiding Directors

" $83 \%$ of boards with a lead/presiding director disclosed their tenure. On average, lead/presiding directors have served in the role for 4.1 years.
> Retired CEOs, chairs, vice chairs, presidents or COOs are most likely to serve as lead or presiding directors (representing $47 \%$ of directors in the role), followed by investors and investment managers (12\%). The average total compensation for S&P 500 directors increased $2 \% 10 $ 304,856$

The average annual retainer for S&P 500 directors increased by about $2 \%$ to $126,200

AVERAGE TOTAL DIRECTOR COMPENSATION TOPS $300,000

》 The average total compensation for S&P 500 directors rose $2 \%$ to $$ 304,856$ from $$ 298,981$ last year. Excluding premium compensation for the independent chairman, the average total compensation per director is $303,269.
» Stock grants and cash represent the largest share of director compensation, $57 \%$ and $38 \%$, respectively. The composition of equity awards has shifted over time, with fewer companies granting options and more awarding stock awards.

》 $72 \%$ of boards have deferred compensation plans.

Breakdown of Director Compensation*

"Total average compensation per non-employee director is based on non-employee director compensation tables included in 491 proxies. The number includes all board and committee retainers and meeting fees, supplemental non-executive chairman and lead/presiding director fees, the value of equity compensation, and all other compensation paid in fiscal year 2018. Retiring and new directors are included when paid compensation for at least three quarters of the year.
Includes deferred compensation amounts.
Includes, for example, insurance premiums, charitable award programs and incremental cost to company of products provided.

AVERAGE RETAINER GROWS BY 2\%; JUST 9\% OF BOARDS PROVIDE MEETING ATTENDANCE FEES

» The average annual retainer for S&P 500 directors increased by about $2 \%$ to $$ 126,200$. In the past five years, the average retainer has increased by $18 \%$.
) Retainers vary widely by company. 41\% pay retainers of less than $100,000 — including 12 companies with retainers under $$ 50,000$ - while 21 companies ( $4 \%$ ) pay retainers of $$ 300,000$ or more.
» The highest retainer, $$ 330,000$, is paid partially in equity, and directors do not receive meeting attendance fees. Three companies provide no cash retainer; one pays $15,000 per meeting (not to exceed $$ 60,000$ per year), one provides $$ 900$-per-meeting attendance fees, and one provides a stock option grant.

Annual Retainers

》 Boards continue to shift director compensation to retainers and stock awards, and away from meeting attendance fees and stock options. Just $9 \%$ of boards provide meeting attendance fees today, a decline from $10 \%$ last year and $43 \%$ in 2009.
" Meeting attendance fees range from $$ 900$ to $$ 15,000$ (at a company where meeting fees were paid in lieu of a retainer and capped at $$ 60,000$ per year) and average $$ 2,402$.

RECRUITING PROFILES

Increasing gender diversity is once again the top recruiting priority and will continue to be in the future.

|  | Current highest-priority board recruiting profiles | Highest priority board recruiting profiles in the next three years |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| $\mathbf{1}$ | Female directors $\mathbf{3 6 \%}$ | Female directors $\mathbf{4 0 \%}$ |
| $\mathbf{2}$ | Technology experience $\mathbf{3 4 \%}$ | Technology experience 38\% |
| $\mathbf{3}$ | Active CEO/COO $\mathbf{3 2 \%}$ | Active CEO/COO 35\% |
| $\mathbf{4}$ | Financial experience $\mathbf{2 8 \%}$ | Digital/social media experience 35\% |
| $\mathbf{5}$ | Operational experience $\mathbf{2 7 \%}$ | Minority $\mathbf{2 4 \%}$ |

Looking ahead, digital/social media experience as well as minority directors become more important recruiting profiles, replacing financial and operational skill sets in the top 5 priorities.

NOMINATING/GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE PRIORITIES

$2 / 3$ of nominating/governance committee members said that their board considered environmental, social and governance (ESG) issues in the past year, but they don't expect ESG to be a top priority in the next 3 years.

"Tie between both priorities.

Like last year, $65 \%$ of respondents of nominating/government committee members say they have already considered or are considering younger directors, reinforcing the fact that it's in the top 5 priorities in the next three years.

Comparative Board Data

Methodology

Based on the S&P 500 as of May 15, 2019. Fiscal year 2018 company sales data obtained from CapitallQ; industry/sector categories from Capital IQ. All remaining data were pulled form the most recent DEF14A proxy statements released between May 30, 2018, and May 15, 2019. Tenure includes time at company and the company's predecessors. Corporate boards classified as public company boards and all data on the number of corporate boards obtained from BoardEx as of May 15, 2019. Total average compensation per non-employee director is based on non-employee director compensation tables included in 491 proxies. The number includes all board and committee retainers and meeting fees, supplemental non-executive chairman and lead/presiding director fees, the value of equity compensation, and all other compensation paid in fiscal year 2018. Total current other corporate board affiliations for new directors were found by counting any public boards a director was on upon appointment to the new S&P 500 board, including executive directorships. Found through proxy data and BoardEx data as of company's most recent proxy. First-time directors have no independent or non-independent public board service.

[^0]:    Editor's Note
    The U.S. Spencer Stuart Board Index (SSBI) is based on our analysis of the most recent proxy reports from the S&P 500 , plus an extensive supplemental survey. This edition of the SSBI draws on the latest proxy statements from 491 companies filed between May 30, 2018, and May 15, 2019, and responses to our governance survey from 113 nominating/governance committee members conducted in the second quarter of 2019. Revenue data were taken from Capital IQ.

    Data in tables and charts may not total $100 \%$ due to rounding.
